James Lees-Milne is on the books blog today so let's have him here as well, recalling a visit to Kelmscott Manor in July 1942. I was there in July 2018 - in the extreme heat - and posted only this but last year's pictures will do well enough for today (see also this). "After tea, we bicycled over the fields and across the river to Kelmscott.

"John Buchan's career as a writer, one of the best-selling of his day, would have been remarkable, even in someone who had done nothing else. He wrote more than a hundred books, including twenty-seven novels, six substantial biographies, a monumental twenty-four-volume contemporary account of the First World War, three works of political philosophy and a legal textbook.
