Civil War, the event that pitted Captain America against Iron Man over the Superhero Registration Act, was easily one of the most controversial crossover events Marvel Comics has ever done. Much of that controversy stemmed from the headline-making issue, Captain America #25, which saw Captain America gunned down after surrendering to Iron Man's forces.

Over the years, What If posed quite a few absurd questions, some for comedic effect, and some just ended up that way. This one was to embrace the comedy that such a situation would pose and Marvel pulled it off nicely. I mean, it is still childish and inane, but the premise and storyline will give you a chuckle.
