Redated from March 2009. I was a Christian recently enough to remember what it felt like to really believe the Creator of the universe talked to me, to really believe I would go to heaven and unbelievers would go to hell, to really believe that prayer made a difference.. It sure felt like I really believed that stuff. And other Christians tell me they really believe that stuff, too.

Do Christians REALLY Believe? - Common Sense Atheism

Whenever the question of origins is discussed, we hear about the Big Bang. Scientists say there exists good evidence for such an event, but many who believe in the Biblical creation account deny it. What is the Big Bang? Is there evidence for it and does that conflict with Scripture?

The teleological or physico-theological argument, also known as the argument from design, or intelligent design argument is an argument for the existence of God or, more generally, for an intelligent creator based on perceived evidence of deliberate design in the natural world.. The earliest recorded versions of this argument are associated with Socrates in ancient Greece, although it has been ...

What does the word "apologetics" mean? The word "apologetics". is derived from the ancient Greek word apologia, which means, an apology.. Not an apology in the modern sense of the word - which is to say you're sorry for something. But rather, an apology in the ancient sense of the word - which is to make a reasoned defense of something or someone.

Christian contemplation, from contemplatio (Latin; Greek θεωρία, Theoria), refers to several Christian practices which aim at "looking at", "gazing at", "being aware of" God or the Divine. It includes several practices and theological concepts, and until the sixth century the practice of what is now called mysticism was referred to by the term contemplatio, c.q. theoria.

Introduction. Because the word trinity is never found in the Bible some wonder about whether this is a biblical doctrine or not, but the absence of a term used to describe a doctrine does not necessarily mean the term is not biblical. The issue is, does the term accurately reflect what the Scripture teaches? In reality, due to the incomprehensible nature of the truth this term reflects, some ...
