Integrated Reporting

Integrated reporting (IR) in corporate communication is a "process that results in communication, most visibly a periodic "integrated report", about value creation over time. An integrated report is a concise communication about how an organization's strategy, governance, performance and prospects lead to the creation of value over the short, medium and long term."

Integrated reporting - Wikipedia

The IIRC is a global coalition of regulators, investors, companies, standard setters, the accounting profession and NGOs. The coalition promotes communication about value creation as the next step in the evolution of corporate reporting. The IIRC's mission is to establish integrated reporting and thinking within mainstream business practice as the norm in the public and private sectors.

1. Introduction. The question we address is how integrated report quality, IRQ, is associated with firm value. In particular, we identify two channels through which IRQ may be associated with firm value—a capital market channel that relates to improved information for outside providers of capital and a real effects channel that relates to improved internal decision making.

Everyone familiar with the Bible knows it talks about angels and demons. But most would be surprised to learn that there's no verse in the Bible that explains where demons came from. Christians typically assume that demons are fallen angels, cast from heaven with Satan (the Devil) right before the temptation of Adam and Eve.

The Prince (Italian: Il Principe [il 'printʃipe]) is a 16th-century political treatise by the Italian diplomat and political theorist Niccolò Machiavelli. From his correspondence, a version appears to have been distributed in 1513, using a Latin title, De Principatibus (Of Principalities). However, the printed version was not published until 1532, five years after Machiavelli's death.
