Just think about it...if gum never lost its flavor, you'd only have to buy one piece — ever. You could chew and chew on it all day long. At night, you could put it on your bedpost and commence chewing again first thing in the morning. OK, that might not sound all that appetizing after all.. But wouldn't it be great if gum never lost its flavor? If you were a gum manufacturer, that might not be ...

Lovely background info. I would however quibble at the "no reason not to eat spag bol" idea. If there's even a whiff of food intolerance in the family, if baby has eczema, irritable tummy, is a bad sleeper on milk, etc etc etc there's every reason to avoid that and like foods as spag bol is a salicylate and amine bomb that will almost certainly trigger a reaction in an intolerant child ...
