Dust Bowl Interviews

The Dust Bowl was a period of severe dust storms that greatly damaged the ecology and agriculture of the American and Canadian prairies during the 1930s; severe drought and a failure to apply dryland farming methods to prevent the aeolian processes (wind erosion) caused the phenomenon. The drought came in three waves, 1934, 1936, and 1939–1940, but some regions of the high plains experienced ...

As long as men and women play the victim as if lust is an omnipotent enemy and they are helpless, they are done for. It is remarkable, wonderful, that this man has focused on the book of Hebrews and, in particular, on the warning that there comes a point of selling ourselves as helpless slaves of lust where God will no longer grant us the ability to repent and find forgiveness in Christ.
