Love and Death on Public Radio - Kindle edition by Robert ...

Love and Death on Public Radio by Robert Stinson is a thoughtful, carefully crafted, murder mystery. The setting of a public radio station and a college works well. Stinson captures the motley crew of characters who work for a public radio station. The mystery and classical musical references are sound.

At its core, David Treuer's latest novel is a tale of unrequited love and random violence. The stuff of melodrama, to be sure, but in Treuer's skillful, multi-vocal telling, neither love nor death appears sensational or simple. Treuer, an Ojibwa writer from northern Minnesota, is the author of three other novels, a controversial work of literary criticism (Native American Fiction: A User ...
