To Catch A Predator Protecting

To Catch a Predator is an American reality television series featuring hidden camera investigations by the television news magazine program Dateline NBC hosted by Chris Hansen. It was devoted to impersonating underage persons (generally ages 12–15) and detaining adults who contacted them over the Internet for sexual liaisons. People were lured to meet with a decoy under the pretense of sexual ...

“To Catch a Predator,” the ratings-grabbing series on NBC’s Dateline, appeared to catch on with the public. But it also raised serious ethical questions for journalists. The television newsmagazine, working “as a wall” with law enforcement, trolled for men to engage in sexually charged on-line chats with minors, then invited them to a face-to-face meeting, supposedly at the child’s ...

Hi Folks! Here's a post by Sharon Kennedy Wynne, a reporter/editor at the Tampa Bay Times (formerly The St. Petersburg Times) about a disturbing trend: Requiring background checks for school volunteers. It's a trend we should fight for three reasons: 1 - The assumption behind it is that any adult interacting with any child in any capacity could easily be a predator.
